BANK ROBBERY ARREST 7000 BLOCK OF EAST 22ND STREET

Tucson Police Department Robbery Unit detectives work with Casa Grande Police Department and Pinal Regional SWAT to apprehend a bank robbery suspect in Casa Grande, Arizona.

On July 18, 2013, at 11:39 a.m., officers from the Tucson Police Department Operations Division Midtown responded to a report of a bank robbery at the Wells Fargo Bank located inside the Fry's Food Store at 7050 East 22nd Street. Upon arrival, officers learned an African American male entered the bank and presented the teller with a note demanding money. The male was given an undisclosed amount of money and fled the scene on foot. The male was described as an African American male, 6'00" tall and a thin build. No one was injured during the incident.

Robbery Unit detectives responded to the scene to continue the investigation. They interviewed witnesses and gathered evidence. No suspect was identified at that time. Detectives continued to investigate leads throughout the years but those leads resulted in dead ends. In July of this year they received additional information which led them to a person of interest who was possibly living in Casa Grande, Arizona. They coordinated with the Casa Grande Police Department and were able to locate where the male was living. Detectives obtained an arrest warrant for one count of robbery on the male. The male was identified as 55-year-old Gregory Keith Williams.

On July 9, 2015 the Tucson Police Department Robbery Unit detectives responded to Casa Grande, Arizona. Together with the Casa Grande Police Department and Pinal Regional SWAT they were able to apprehend Mr. Williams without incident. He was subsequently booked into the Pinal County Jail for one count of Robbery.
